A Softer Floor for Multipurposes

“Koshi is a great product for Martial Arts.”

Koshi Tiles are Impact Absorbent Foam Tiles, Interlocking Puzzle Mats, Foam Play Floors for Kids, Rubber Floor Tiles

Koshi tiles are used for a variety of purposes, ranging from yoga mats and martial arts flooring -- to creating educational puzzle mats, exercise mats, interlocking puzzle mats, foam play floors for kids, tumbling mats, and hopscotch mats. The possibilities for using these lightweight, waterproof, shock absorbent foam rubber floor tiles are limited only by your imagination. This comfortable and affordable flooring choice has many other desirable qualities, including being soundproof, portable, and aerobic.

Our reversible soft floor tiles are available in black/grey and blue/red color combinations in ten and 15-pack sets. This extremely comfortable flooring is made out of high density EVA foam and is 2 feet squared and 7/8" thick. They're versatile, shock absorbent, and can be used for everything from playground surfaces to impact sports settings: martial arts, tumbling, boxing, and aerobics.
